

Department of Educational Planning and Administration
Graduate Studies/ Master's degree
Courses within the program

The program includes one track, namely the courses and master's thesis track. The program contains nine (9) courses distributed over three (3) semesters, totaling (29) credit hours, in addition to preparing a master's thesis. Upon completion of graduation requirements, the student is awarded a master's degree in (Educational Planning and Administration). Table (1) below shows these courses distributed according to the semester system, as follows:

Table (1) shows the academic courses (first semester) for the Master's program in the Department of Educational Planning and Administration.

Hours	Units	First semester courses	Course code
3	3	Educational Research Methods	EAP 601
3	3	Comparative Educational Administration	EAP 602
3	3	Contemporary Administrative Trends	EAP 604
9	9	Total of units and hours

Table (2) shows the academic courses (second semester) for the Master's program in the Department of Educational Planning and Administration.

Hours	Units	First semester courses	Course code
3	4	Educational Statistics and its applications	EAP 606
3	3	Educational Supervision and its theories	EAP 603
3	3	Economics of Education	EAP 607
09	10	Total of units and hours

Table (3) shows the academic courses (third semester) for the Master's program in the Department of Educational Planning and Administration.

Hours	Units	First semester courses	Course code
3	3	Advanced Educational Administration	EAP 605
3	4	Educational Research Hall	EAP 608
3	3	Educational Planning and its techniques	EAP 609
09	10	Total of units and hours

Program coordinator

Dr . Karima Ali Al-Raqi'i